LOCAL AMENITIES AND EXCURSIONS

EYPE VILLAGE – pronounced as in ‘peep’, Eype is a beautiful and peaceful West Dorset village nestled in a valley leading to Eype beach. The beach is just a short stroll away. Our village public house and hotel welcome dogs and their owners.

BRIDPORT – a small market town less than a mile from Eype. Renowned for producing ropes and the Wimbledon tennis nets, it also has a vibrant open air market held on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

WEST BAY – the fishing port east of Eype is West Bay. Built as the harbour for Bridport, West Bay is now a seaside resort renowned for its coastal walks, fishing trips, fossil hunting, sheltered beach and for the setting of the award winning drama Broadchurch.

LYME REGIS – the setting for John Fowles book and film ‘The French Lieutenants Woman’, an historic town with some of the best fossil hunting to be found. Best known for the famous ‘Cobb’ harbour which dates from when the town was one of the most important Ports on the south coast.

JURASSIC COAST – with 95 miles of stunning coastline and designated as a World Heritage Site the famous Jurassic Coast offers visitors a glimpse back through 185 million years of earths history. Excellent walks and the guided ‘Fossil Hunting Trail’ along the World Heritage footpaths provide an unforgettable experience.
